GOING, GOING, GONE!!!

Cheryl Napier and Earl (UK fan) Taylor assist with the auction items

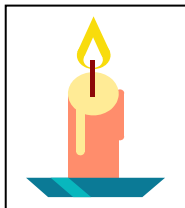

The Emmaus Supper and Auction provided lots of good deals for the bidders as well as over $3,900 in PROFIT for the Lexington Emmaus Community. Now that's a Good Deal! Thanks to David and Danny, the auctioneers, who raised the laughter level as well as the bids for the evening's entertainment and to Earl Taylor, the emcee! Bids ranged from $1.00 for a T shirt to $425 for a week's stay in Orlando or at a Wyndham resort. Thanks, too, to the members of the Emmaus community who gave so generously - individually as well as through reunion groups. The theme baskets were beautifully presented and popular bid items. The night could not have happened without all the help of volunteers who handled publicity, sound, worked in the kitchen, helped set up and clean up, signed out bid numbers, recorded bid amounts and were cashiers. All the profit will go to the glory of God, and that's a good deal! De colores!

NOVEMBER GATHERING AT MENS' CANDLELIGHT

Don't forget that the November Gathering will be a Candlelight service held on Saturday, November 7th at Estes Chapel, Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore. This is part of the Men's Emmaus Walk #105 so please be there promptly at 8:00 p.m. so that the pilgrims are surprised and you don't miss the pre-candlelight service.

Libby Kenney, Lay Director

NEW BANNERS NEEDED

The community banners are showing signs of age and need to be replaced or repaired. These banners are a vital part of the tangible expressions of God's Agape Love on the Walks. Would you and/or your reunion group please consider making a new banner for the Community? If you have any questions please contact Kathy Rosewell krose1@uky.edu or Marty Wright martybob@wrightsrealm.com.

RECOMMENDED BOOK OF THE MONTH

Just Walk Across the Room: Simple Steps Pointing People To Faith
By Bill Hybels

As Christians, we are constantly reminded by Scripture, particularly by the Great Commission, that we are all evangelists. We carry the gospel message to a world in need. Unfortunately, many of us hear the words of Matthew 28:18-20 and tremble at the thought of witnessing to others. Bill Hybels, pastor of Willowcreek Church, in Just Walk across the Room: Simple Steps Pointing People to Faith, presents a short to-the-point book that helps believers find practical ways to share God with others. While Hybels doesn't really approach the issue of sharing scriptural answers to difficult questions or knowing Scripture in-depth, he does share his own personal experience and some step-by-step ideas of how to approach and talk to people about God and his love and how that love can change a person's life. I found two crucial practical points in Hybels' book that I think anyone will find helpful: (1) He relates how to approach people about God as we live our lives on a daily basis, from visiting with our neighbors as we take out the garbage every week to talking with our friend from the bowling league, and (2) he gives the best ideas I've found for putting our own personal stories of how God has changed our lives into a short impactful format that we can memorize and be prepared to share at any time with someone who wants to know why God is important to us. I recommend this book as an aid to encourage you to walk up to people, make friends, and introduce them to Christ.
