"Did not our hearts burn within us, while he talked with us by the way...?"

OCTOBER 2007

EMMAUS CHANGED MY LIFE...

"...I wanted to tell each of you that all the hard work you put in to each Emmaus Walk is worth it.

These Walks change people. I know because my Walk turned my life completely around. That's why I want to thank each of you for all your hard work and dedication to each Emmaus Walk. Your work, whether it be on the Agape team, food or Candlelight, whatever you do, it really does make a difference to someone, whether you know it or not.

Sometimes when you do something over and over, it becomes dull and routine. And people forget to say thank you. But to each pilgrim on that Walk, the experience will be unforgettable.

Without my Emmaus Walk, I would have lost my way and I would have missed out on the greatest truth of all...Grace. Always Grace. Thank you."

Cyndy Leasor, Lexington Emmaus Walk #94-Table of Ruth, Fourth Day Speaker September Gathering

RECOMMENDED BOOK OF THE MONTH

Celebration of Discipline by Richard Foster

This classic book on spiritual disciplines is a must for every Christian's personal library. The practice of spiritual disciplines is essential to our spiritual growth and Foster's guidance on this subject is profound. This is a book all of us should read and one I believe you will find yourself referring back to throughout your pilgrimage. If you don't yet own it, put it on your Christmas wish list! Grace, Chuck

JANUARY ORIENTATION AND TRAINING

Ever wondered about how The Lexington Emmaus Community functions? The Lexington Emmaus Community will be hosting an opportunity to explore how the Walk to Emmaus works. The event will be held at First United Methodist Church, 200 West High Street, Lexington, KY. Rev. Paul Brunstetter, Senior Minister, of the First United Methodist Church in Lexington will be our guest speaker.

J. Paul Brunstetter was born in Maysville, Kentucky on May 9, 1950, the son of a United Methodist pastor. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Physiology from Asbury College in 1972, a Master of Arts in Physiology of Exercise from Eastern Kentucky University in 1975, a Master of Divinity from Asbury Seminary in 1981, and has done his doctoral courses at Presbyterian Seminary in Louisville. He has traveled with Athletes in Action and taught and coached several sports in high school before going into the pastorate full-time.

Please set aside January 19, 2008. We will start registration at 8:30 AM.

Lexington Chrysalis Community

As you start each day, may you Fly with Christ!

The Lexington Emmaus Community is pleased to announce the spring Boys' and Girls' Flight will be on February 16 - 18, 2008. Tim Hamilton and Judy Seitz have agreed to be the Lay Directors of the Flights respectively. The Flights will be held at Asbury Theological Seminary simultaneously. Applications are available on the community webpage. (www.lexingtonemmaus.org)

Please be in prayer for Tim and Judy as they start to put their teams together. And pray for the young people who God is preparing to attend.
